SUBJECT : Invitation to Speak to Intelligence
Review (11)

1. This memorandum suggests action on the part of the Director of Central Intelligence; this action is contained in paragraph 3.

2. The eleventh running of the Intelligence Review Course, which is offered twice each year to middle and senior-level Agency employees who have had a considerable number of years in the Agency, will be held from 28 October through 10 November at 1000 Glebe Road. The course, with an enrollment limited to approximately 40, affords such employees an opportunity to secure an up-to-date review of developments and problems arising both in the Agency and in the intelligence community. Senior officials appear as guest speakers to discuss likely future as well as current developments.

3. It has been customary to close this course with remarks by either the DCI or DDCI. I therefore wish to extend to you a cordial invitation to address this group on the afternoon of Wednesday, 10 November. The time and duration of your remarks can be adjusted to your convenience.

MEMORANDUM FOR:

Course, 10 November 1965

1. I feel that the attached comments by of the Intelligence Review Faculty accurately reflect the Director's views as expressed to the class.

2. Of the points covered, it is my impression that the Director gave his major emphasis to points 7 and 8 in the attached paper. The Director's main point was that our primary mission is the collection and dissemination of intelligence. While he praised the Agency for their handling of covert action, he stressed that Agency programs of covert action took needed resources away from the primary mission. The Director indicated that he has been resisting pressures to increase the Agency's CA role in Viet Nam. In this connection, he indicated that he would like to know more about the extent of communist penetrations within the South Vietnamese military.

3. It was my impression that the main thought the Director wanted to leave with us was that our primary mission was the collection and dissemination of intelligence and that we should concentrate our improvement efforts there.
